MUNFW RULES OF CONDUCT

Model United Nations of the Far West strives to emulate the actual United Nations, and participants should also strive to maintain a professional decorum. It is the responsibility of the Advisor to inform their delegates of the proper conduct and behavior and to ensure their delegates conform to the guidelines during the annual session. If a problem arises with a delegate concerning these guidelines, the delegate's advisor will be asked to help resolve the situation.

Behavior in Committee

Committees are forums for discussion and creative solutions to global problems. Delegates are expected to be prepared, attentive, courteous and familiar with the committee's Rule of Procedure. Delegates shall address themselves to the chair or the entire body, at no time will delegates engage in debate or argue with each other directly. Delegates should not interrupt or be disrespectful during the speech of another delegate, nor should disagreements between delegates and the Chair over the interpretation of rules become a shouting match. At no time will delegates use foul language, or direct racial or ethnic slurs against a country or individual. Any of the above actions on the part of a delegate may be grounds for loss of credentials at the discretion of the Secretary-General.

Behavior Outside of Committee

The Secretariat hopes all delegates will take advantage of conference time to meet and get to know students from other schools and geographic locations. However, the Secretariat reminds delegates that there are appropriate times for these activities, both before and after committee session. When committees are in session, delegates are expected to be in their respective committee rooms.

Because we share the hotel with other groups and other guests, delegates are reminded to keep their noise to a minimum. Inappropriate behavior will result in action by the Secretariat, the hotel staff, or possibly the Burlingame Police Department. A delegate may be removed from the conference and/or hotel if s/he acts in a disruptive manner or is disrespectful to Secretariat members or other participants at the conference.

MUNFW shall maintain a security watch during the late evenings of conference. The security staff provides a buffer between delegates and hotel security. If any room is perceived as loud, MUNFW security will knock on the door and request that you quiet down. If MUNFW security returns to the room a second time, they will make a preliminary report to hotel security. If they return for a third time, hotel security will be called immediately and the occupants may be requested to leave the hotel.

Alcohol Policy

It is the policy of the Board of Directors of MUNFW to discourage alcoholic beverages from being brought to the conference site. For all receptions or group get-togethers taking place during the conference, the consumption of alcohol must be inside guest rooms. Drinking of alcohol in open containers or glasses in the hallways or in open doorways is prohibited. State law prohibits the serving of liquor to anyone without proper identification verifying that the person is 21 years or older. There shall be no alcohol permitted in committee rooms at any time. Any person or persons exhibiting disruptive behavior as a result of alcohol consumption will be requested to leave the conference immediately. No exceptions.
